FINDING OURSELVES IN CHRIST

Who am I? Am I worth it? Or am I, in the famous words of Basil Fawlty, just 'a waste of space'?

This year at the London Women's Convention we are thrilled to have Graham Beynon, author of Mirror, Mirror, coming to speak on the whole area of our identity. He will be joined by Andrea Trevenna and together they will explore with us God's original intention for humanity, how we've messed up by searching for our identity in the wrong places, and our restoration in Christ. It promises to be a heart-searching and heart-changing day!

This year we are going to try something new. By popular demand we are back at Central Hall Westminster in the heart of London. However, so we can fit everyone in, we are going to run the same convention twice on the same day: one Daylight and one Twilight.

The idea is that people who like an early start, or who would like to make the most of an afternoon in London, will come to the Daylight convention, whilst those who like a lie-in or are 'ladies who lunch' will come to the Twilight convention (see opposite for timings).

The new timings will mean we enjoy three main sessions all together, rather than breaking out into seminars, with live music available during the main break from Christian singer-songwriter Yvonne Lyon.

This year - why not bring a friend who's never been before? It's shaping up to be a great day together.

Look forward to seeing you in October.

Lizzy Smallwood,

Chair - London Women's Convention

Speakers

GRAHAM BEYNON is based in Cambridge where he is leading a church plant initiative from Eden Baptist Church. He is also studying for a PhD and is the Course Director for 'TEAM' (Training for East Anglia Ministry). Prior to full-time Christian ministry he was an audiological scientist working with hearing and balance disorders. Graham is the author of a number of books including Mirror, Mirror, which focuses on finding our true identity in Christ. He is married to Charis and they have three children - Cara, Isaac and Jed. In his spare time he enjoys watching TV with his wife, walking with their dog, trying his hand at DIY, and trying to prove he's still young by playing 5-a-side football!

ANDREA TREVENNA regularly speaks at women's conferences and conventions and is the Associate for Women's Ministry at St Nicholas church in Sevenoaks. She has been there for the past 9 years and before she joined the staff team she was a primary school teacher in Croydon. Andrea enjoys cooking, going to the theatre, spending time with her 13 godchildren.....and her new hobby for 2011, tap dancing!

Music

Christian singer-songwriter YVONNE LYON is among the best and brightest emerging talent from Scotland. Her latest album, Ashes to Gold (recorded with Graeme Duffin, Wet Wet Wet), combines poignant lyrics with strong, creative melodies, demonstrating a voice that can be both fragile and intense. She has consistently drawn and stirred crowds across the UK with her emotive performances, and has also performed 2 live sessions on the Bob Harris programme on Radio 2.

ANDY FENTON will be leading the Convention music. Andy is Minister of Christ Church Earlsfield, a small church plant in South West London. He also leads a number of music conferences to help church musicians and PA teams to serve more effectively in their local churches.
